THIS DOCUMENT IS FOR REFERENCE PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT AN OFFICIAL VERSION OF THE LAW.

LAW No. XVIII

ON TRANSPARENCY, SUPERVISION AND FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE

8 October 2013

THE PONTIFICAL COMMISSION FOR THE VATICAN CITY STATE

- Bearing in mind article 7, paragraph 2, of the Fundamental Law of the Vatican City State, of 26 November 2000;

- bearing in mind Law No. LXXI on the Sources of Law, of 1 October 2008;

- bearing in mind the Motu Proprio of Pope Francis for the prevention and countering of money- laundering, financing of terrorism and proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, of 8 August 2013;

- bearing in mind Law No. V, on the economic, commercial and professional systems, of 7 June 1929;

- bearing in mind Law No. CLXVI, of 24 April 2013, confirming the Decree of the President of the Governorate No. CLIX of 25 January 2012, by which modifications and integrations to Law No. CXXVII of 30 December 2010, on the prevention and countering of the laundering of proceeds of criminal activities and of the financing of terrorism, were promulgated;

- bearing in mind Law No. VIII, on Supplementary norms on criminal law matters, of 11 July 2013;

- bearing in mind Law No. X, on General norms on administrative sanctions, of 11 July 2013;

- bearing in mind the Decree No. XI of the President of the Governorate, on Norms concerning transparency, supervision and financial intelligence, of 8 August 2013;

considering that

- there is no free market in the Vatican City State;

- illicit activities and, in particular, money-laundering and the financing of terrorism threaten the integrity and stability of the economic, commercial and professional sectors, as well as the reputation of operators;

- the solidity of operators in the financial field is a fundamental element for the stability of the economic, commercial and professional sectors at the domestic and international levels;

- all States are called to contribute to the prevention and countering of illicit activities and, in particular, of money-laundering and the financing of terrorism, by adopting adequate systems of supervision and financial intelligence and by cooperating at the international level, including through border controls;

- all States are called to protect and promote the stability of the entities carrying out financial activities on a professional basis, including by means of adequate systems of prudential supervision and by cooperating at the international level;

- all States are called to prevent and counter international terrorism and the activities of subjects that threaten international peace and security or who participate in the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction;

- it is opportune to confirm Decree No. XI of the President of the Governorate on Norms concerning transparency, supervision and financial intelligence, of 8 August 2013, with some amendments;

has approved the following

Article 8 – Competent authorities

1. The Secretariat of State shall define the policies and general strategies for the prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism; it is responsible for the adhesion to and implementation of international treaties and agreements as well as the participation in international institutions and bodies, including those institutions and bodies competent to define norms and best practices for the prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism.

2. The President of the Governorate shall:

a) apply administrative sanctions in the cases established by the law;

b) take care that the data and information concerning the nature, activity, organization, effective ownership and beneficiaries of legal entities having their registered office in the State, are kept in the appropriate register, are updated appropriately and are accessible to the competent authorities, also informing the legal entities of their obligations on the matter;

c) adopt and regularly update the list containing the names of subjects, natural persons or entities, regarding to whom there are reasonable grounds to believe that they pose a threat international peace and security. [42]

3. The Financial Security Committee shall promote the coordination and cooperation between the competent authorities in conformity with the provisions of its own Statute and this Law.

4. The Financial Information Authority:

a) carries out the function of supervision and regulation and the function of financial intelligence according to the provisions of its own Statute and the law, adopting the necessary procedures and measures to ensure the distinction between the function of supervision and regulation and the function of financial intelligence;

b) shall adopt regulations and guidelines in the cases established by the Law[43];

c) shall apply sanctions in the ways and within the limits established by the Law;

d) forms part of the delegations of the Holy See to the financial institutions and international technical bodies competent for the prevention and countering of money laundering and financing of terrorism;

e) carries out specific periodic training programmes on the prevention and countering money-laundering and financing of terrorism system in place, including the necessary training in view of recognizing operations which may be related to money laundering or financing of terrorism and knowing how to proceed in such cases[44].

5. The Corps of the Gendarmerie:

a) shall use up-to-date investigative techniques for the prevention and countering money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

[42] Paragraph amended by Article 7 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[43] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 7 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[44] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 7 (3) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

b) ensures the professional training and updating of its personnel relating to the phenomena of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

c) with the nihil obstat of the Secretariat of State, stipulates memoranda of understanding with analogous bodies of other States for the prevention and countering of criminal activities, including money laundering, the financing of terrorism and predicate offences of money laundering.

6. The Office of the Promoter of Justice shall coordinate investigations concerning the prevention and countering of money laundering and terrorism financing, and shall carry out the investigative activities.[45]

7. The competent authorities adopt adequate programs for the training of personnel, the collection and exchange of information as well as the implementation of the law in force, including sanctioning and designating activities.

CHAPTER II
RISK ASSESSMENT

Article 9 – General Risk Assessment

1. The Financial Security Committee:

a) establishes the criteria and the methods for the elaboration of the general assessment of risks of money laundering, financing of terrorism and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction of the Holy See and Vatican City State, analysing the threats, vulnerabilities and mitigation measures[46];

b) shall approve the general risk assessment and its regular updating.

2. On the basis of the general risk assessment:

a) the Financial Security Committee:

i) evaluates the efficacy of the system for preventing and countering money laundering, terrorism financing and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction, analysing the adequacy of the objectives, priorities and measures needed on the part of the competent authorities for risk management and mitigation, including the allocation of available human and material resources. This activity may be carried out through the production of complete statistics on the issues that address the efficacy of these systems, including through the activities carried out by the Financial Information Authority in accordance with Article 14[47];

ii) coordinates the identification, evaluation, information, management and mitigation of the risks of money laundering and the financing of terrorism by the competent authorities;

iii) coordinates the adoption and regular updating of policies and procedures for the prevention and the countering of money laundering, financing of terrorism and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction;

iv) drafts a report on the institutional structure and main procedures of the system for preventing and countering money laundering and terrorism financing, including the main competent authorities indicated in Article 8, and the human and financial resources allocated[48];

[45] Paragraph amended by Article 6 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[46] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 7 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[47] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 7 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[48] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 7 (3) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

v) drafts a report on the activities and on the human and financial resources tasked with preventing and countering money laundering and terrorism financing[49].

b) the Financial Information Authority:

i) shall monitor the effectiveness of the system for the prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

ii) shall communicate to the obliged entities the results of the general risk assessment;

iii) shall provide the competent authorities and the obliged entities with the data, information and analyses which allow them to carry out their own risk assessment;

iv) shall indicate to the obliged entities the high risk factors to be taken into account in the elaboration of their own risk assessment;

v) shall indicate to the obliged entities the sectors where they shall apply enhanced measures and, where necessary, the procedures and controls to be adopted;

vi) shall inform the competent authorities and obliged entities about the risks and the vulnerabilities of the systems for prevention and countering of money laundering in other States and, to that end, shall publish a list of high risk States;

vii) shall identify and order adequate and proportionate counter measures to the risks in the case where a State persistently does not observe or observes insufficiently the international standards in the field of prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism; viii) shall order the application of enhanced customer due diligence, proportionate to the risks, for the relations, operations or transactions with natural or legal persons, including financial institutions, of States with a high risk of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

ix) may identify and publish a list of States that impose obligations equivalent to those established in this Title;

x) shall publish and regularly update a list that indicates the functions that, based on the existing legal framework, are considered import public functions for the purposes of Article 1, paragraph 16[50].

3. A summary of the general risk assessment and of the updates thereto shall be published in a dedicated section of the website of the Financial Information Authority. Such summaries shall not include sensitive or classified information[51].

Article 10 – Particular risk evaluation

1. The obliged subjects shall identify, evaluate, manage and mitigate the risks of money laundering and the financing of terrorism. To that end, each subject shall prepare and periodically update its own risk evaluation.

1bis. In preparing their risk assessment, obliged entities shall take into account,[52] inter alia:

a) the category of counterparts;

b) the State or geographical area in question;

[49] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 7 (3) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[50] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 7 (4) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[51] Paragraph introduced by Article 7 (5) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[52] Paragraph introduced by Article 8 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

c) the typology of relationship, the level of assets deposited and the size of transactions undertaken, the product, the service, the operation, the transaction and the channel of distribution[53].

2. The risk assessment shall be documented and sent to the Financial Information Authority, which may require its review.

3. The obliged subjects shall pay particular attention to:

a) relationships, operations and transactions with natural or legal persons, including financial institutions, from or in States at high risk or that do not apply, or that apply insufficiently, the international standards in the field of prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism. If those operations and transactions do not appear to have an economic or lawful purpose, the motives and purpose for such operations and transactions shall be examined as far as possible, and the outcome of such exam shall be documented in writing and made available to assist the Financial Information Authority and other competent authorities and accountants;

b) any risk of money laundering or of financing of terrorism connected to products or operations which could favour anonymity, adopting adequate procedures and measures to prevent their use for activities of money laundering or the financing of terrorism.

4. The senior management of the obliged subject shall adopt policies, procedures, measures and controls necessary to fulfil the requirements established in this article. Such provisions shall be communicated on a timely basis to the Financial Information Authority, which may require its modification or strengthening.

Article 11 – Internal controls

1. On the basis of the general risk assessment established in Articles 9 and 10, the obliged subjects shall:

a) adopt policies, procedures, measures and controls designed to manage and mitigate the identified risks of money laundering and the financing of terrorism;

b) monitor the implementation of controls, enhancing them, where necessary;

c) adopt enhanced measures to manage and mitigate risks, where higher risks are identified.

2. Policies, procedures, measures and controls under paragraph 1 are approved by the senior management and shall be proportionate to the nature, dimensions and activity of the obliged subject.

These include:

a) policies, procedures and measures of customer due diligence, registration, record- keeping and reporting;

b) internal controls;

c) means of compliance management;

d) the appointment of a person, preferably[54] at management level, with the ability to timely access all the information relating to customer due diligence, operations and transactions;

e) selection and employment procedures, including enquiries prior to employment, which guarantee a high professional and ethical level of personnel;

f) programs of training and updating for personnel;

[53] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 8 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[54] Word introduced by Article 9 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

g) independent audit function to test the system.

3. In addition to the requirements established by paragraphs 1 and 2, the groups of which those obliged subjects are part shall adopt programs for the prevention and countering of money-laundering and the financing of terrorism applicable to all branches and subsidiaries of the group.

These programs include:

a) policies, procedures and measures for the sharing of documents, data and information necessary for customer due diligence and the management of risks of money- laundering and the financing of terrorism;

b) the exchange of documents, data and information on customers, accounts, operations and transactions, and the transmission to the organs responsible for compliance, accounting, the prevention and countering of money-laundering and the financing of terrorism at group level;

c) adequate procedures and measures to ensure the integrity, confidentiality, security and appropriate use of information exchanged.

Article 12 – Foreign branches and subsidiaries

1. The obliged subjects shall ensure that their foreign branches and subsidiaries adopt and apply procedures and measures conforming to this Title if the legislation in force in the host State is less strict or is not in conformity with international standards in force, insofar as the legal system of the host State allows it.

2. In the case where the legal system of the host State does not allow the proper fulfilment of all the procedures and measures required by this Title, the groups which obliged subjects are part of shall adopt and apply adequate additional procedures and measures for the effective management of risks, duly informing the Financial Information Authority. If the Financial Information Authority considers those additional procedures and measures insufficient, it orders their modification or the cessation of the activities in the host State.

Article 13 – Simplified risk management and assessment

1. The Financial Information Authority, on the basis of risks assessments, shall identify by regulation the sectors and typologies of relationship, product, service, operation, transaction and channels of distribution of low risk.

2. On the basis of the determination established in paragraph 1, if all the requirements established by the legal system have been fulfilled, the Financial Information Authority can authorize the adoption of simplified procedures and measures for the management and containment of risks by the obliged subjects, indicating the procedures and measures to be adopted and the requirements to be fulfilled.

3. The procedures and measures for the simplified risk management and mitigation of low risks cannot be applied when there is a suspicion or a high risk of money-laundering or of financing of terrorism.

Article 13bis – Specific provisions for reporting entities[55]

1. The reporting entities referred to in article 1, number 23, letters b) and c), shall identify, assess, manage and contain the risk that their activities are exploited for the purposes of money laundering and terrorist financing and to report suspicious activities that may occur in the fulfilment of their institutional purposes, pursuant to article 40 paragraph 2.

[55] Article introduced by Article 10 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

2. In order to comply with the provisions of paragraph 1:

a) the reporting subjects referred to in article 1, number 23, letter b):

i) shall carry out self-assessment activities aimed at drawing up and periodically updating their own particular risk assessment, in line with the indications provided and based on the tools developed by the Financial Information Authority and the competent supervisory authority in agreement with each other;

ii) shall assess, on the basis of the results of the activities referred to in the previous point, the applicability of the provisions of articles 11, 12 and 13, taking into particular consideration the principle of proportionality and according to a risk-based approach.

b) the reporting subjects referred to in article 1, number 23, letter c):

i) shall carry out self-assessment activities aimed at drawing up and periodically updating their own particular risk assessment, in line with the indications provided and on based on the tools developed by the Secretariat for the Economy, through the Financial Information Authority;

ii) the Secretariat for the Economy shall, on the basis of the results of the particular risk assessment of each Authority, within the limits and in line with the provisions of its Statute and by current legislation and having consulted, in particular, the Authorities concerned, the Financial Information Authority and the Office of the Auditor General, adopt and/or recommend the adoption of the measures provided for in articles 11, 12 and 13, taking into particular consideration the principle of proportionality and according to a risk-based approach.

Article 14 – Analyses and studies

a) elaborates analyses and studies relating to:

i) the economic, commercial and professional sectors;

ii) specific matters or activities at risk;

iii) anomalies which can indicate cases of money-laundering or financing of terrorism;

b) elaborates statistics on matters and activities relevant to the effectiveness of the system of prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, including:

i) statistics on the dimension and importance of various sectors falling within the scope of application of this Title, including the number of obliged subjects and the economic relevance of each sector;

ii) statistics on the number of suspicious activity reports and follow-up given to those reports, on the investigations and judicial phases, on the number of persons prosecuted or convicted for money laundering or financing of terrorism offences, for crimes connected to money-laundering or the financing of terrorism and the typologies of predicate offences, and on the value of funds or other assets frozen, seized or confiscated[56];

iii) statistics on the number of suspicious activity reports sent by reporting entities and on the outcome of the same, as well as the number and percentage of reports that give rise to investigations[57];

iv) statistics concerning international cooperation in the context of supervision and financial intelligence,

[56] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 9 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[57] Paragraph introduced by Article 11 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

v) statistics on the supervisory activities carried out in the context of preventing and countering money laundering and terrorism financing and in relation to prudential supervision, including off-site and on-site inspection, the number of violations identified as a result of the supervisory activities, and the sanctions and administrative measures applied by the supervisory authority[59];

vi) statistics concerning investigative and judicial activities, including international cooperation[60].

c) elaborates and coordinates preliminary studies and analyses for the general risk assessment of the Holy See and the State.

CHAPTER III
CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE

Article 15 – Cases of application

1. The following subjects shall carry out customer due diligence:

a) the subjects indicated by Article 2, letter a):

i) when they establish a relationship;

ii) when they carry out operations or transactions equal to or above EUR 10,000, regardless of the fact that the operation or transaction is executed in a single operation or in several operations which appear to be linked;

iii) when they make a transfer of funds equal to or above EUR 1,000;

b) the subjects indicated by Article 2, letter b), shall fulfil the requirements of customer due diligence in carrying out their professional activity, as individuals or in a group:

i) when a professional service has as its object funds or other assets of a value equal to or above EUR 10,000;

ii) when the transaction is of a value equal to or above EUR 10,000, regardless of the fact that the operation or transaction is executed in a single operation or in several operations which appear to be linked;

iii) in all cases in which either the funds or other assets that constitute the object of the professional service, or the transaction, are of an indeterminate or indeterminable amount. For the purposes of customer due diligence, the constitution, management or administration of legal persons are cases of professional service of an indeterminable value;

c) the subjects indicated by Article 2, letters c), d), e) and f).

2. All the subjects indicated in Article 2 shall in any case fulfil the requirements of customer due diligence:

a) where there is a suspicion of money- laundering or the financing of terrorism, regardless of an exemption or applicable threshold;

b) where there are doubts as to the reliability or adequacy of the data previously obtained for the identification of the customer, of persons acting in the name of and on behalf of the counterpart or of the beneficial owner.

[58] Paragraph introduced by Article 11 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[59] Paragraph introduced by Article 11 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

Article 16 – Requirements

1. For the purposes of customer due diligence, the obliged subjects shall fulfil, inter alia, the following requirements:

a) identify the counterpart and verify his identity on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from a reliable and independent source, including, where available, the means for electronic identification, or other remote or electronic identification procedures that are secure, regulated, recognized, approved or accepted by the Financial Information Authority, having heard the opinion of the Financial Security Committee[61];

b) identify the persons who intend to act in the name of and on behalf of the counterpart verifying that they have been authorised to do so as well as their identity on the basis of documents, data and information obtained from a reliable and independent source;

c) identify the beneficial owner and adopt adequate measures to verify his identity, on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from a reliable and independent source that satisfy the obliged subject;

d) verify if the counterpart is acting in the name and on behalf of other subjects;

e) verify and obtain documents, data and information relating to the purpose and nature of the relationship and the origin of funds.

1bis. With regard to paragraph 1, subparagraph c), where the beneficial owner identified is the natural person that holds a senior management position in the legal person referenced in Article 1, paragraph 24, subparagraph a), point ii), or exercises control via other means, obliged entities shall take the necessary reasonable measures to verify the identity of such natural person and shall keep records of the actions taken as well as any difficulties encountered during the verification process[62].

2. Customer due diligence and, in particular, the identification and verification of the identity of the counterpart, of the persons authorized to act in the name of and on behalf of the counterpart, and of the beneficial owner, shall be carried out:

a) in cases involving subjects indicated by Article 2, letters a), d), e) and f), before establishing a relationship or carrying out an operation or transaction;

b) in cases involving subjects indicated by Article 2, letters b) and c), at the initial phase of the evaluation of the position of the counterpart and in any case before establishing a relationship or carrying out an operation or transaction.

3. If it is not possible to carry out customer due diligence in accordance with paragraphs 1 and 2, it is forbidden to establish a relationship or, in the case of existing relationships[63], to perform an operation or transaction. In such cases, the obliged subjects shall report to the Financial Information Authority.

4. In establishing a relationship and in providing an occasional service, the obliged subjects provide the counterpart with general information about their legal obligations on the processing of personal data for the purposes of preventing money laundering and the financing of terrorism. This information must include at least:

a) the purposes of the processing of personal data;

[61] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 12 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[62] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 12 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[63] Paragraph amended by Article 12 (3) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

b) the recipients or categories of recipients of the counterpart's personal data;

c) the obligation of the counterpart to provide the requested information, as well as the fact that a failure to respond would prevent the establishment of the relationship or the provision of the service requested;

d) the right of the counterpart, without prejudice to the prohibition of disclosure established by law, to access the own personal data kept by the obliged subject, as well as to rectify them[64].

5. Personal data obtained for the customer due diligence purpose cannot be used for commercial purposes[65].

Article 17 – Further requirements in the cases of legal persons

1. In the case where the counterpart is a legal person, the obliged subject shall acquire knowledge and understanding of the structure of ownership and control and of the nature of the activity carried out by the legal person, and the identification and the verification of the identity of the beneficial owner[66].

2. For the purposes of identification and verification of the identity of the counterpart, the obliged subjects shall gather, inter alia, the following information:

a) the denomination, legal nature and proof of the existence of the legal person;

b) the organs and powers that regulate the functioning and legally bind the legal person, including, inter alia, the names of the persons who exercise management and senior management functions;

c) the address of the registered office and, if different, of the principal place of business.

3. For the purposes of identification and verification of the identity of the beneficial owner, the obliged subjects shall gather, inter alia, the following information:

a) the identity of the natural persons who ultimately have a controlling ownership interest in the legal person or are its beneficiaries;

b) the identity of the natural persons who exercise control of the legal person through other means, if, after the fulfilment of the requirements set forth in subparagraph a):

i) there is a doubt as to whether the persons with controlling ownership interest are the beneficial owner; or

ii) there are no natural persons with controlling ownership interests in the legal person;

c) the identity of the natural person who holds the highest senior management position in the legal person, if, after the fulfilment of the requirements established by subparagraphs a) and b), no other natural persons have been identified.

4. In the case of entities such as foundations or other legal arrangements, such as trusts, for the purposes of identification and verification of the identity of the beneficial owner, the obliged subjects shall gather, inter alia, the following information:

a) for trusts, the identity of the settlor, of the trustee, of the protector[67], of the beneficiaries or the category of beneficiaries and any other natural person who ultimately exercises the control over the trust, directly or indirectly;

[64] Sub-Paragraph introduced by Article 10 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[65] Paragraph introduced by Article 10 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[66] Paragraph amended by Article 11 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[67] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 13 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

b) for other types of entities or legal institutes, the identity of persons who hold equivalent or similar positions.

5. When entering into a new business relationship with a legal person, or a trust or a legal arrangement having a structure or functions similar to trusts, obliged entities shall collect proof of registration in the relevant register, including the presence of adequate, accurate and current information on beneficial ownership[68].

Article 18 – Further requirements in the case of life or other investment-related insurances[69].

1. In cases of life or other investment-related insurances[70], as soon as the beneficiary has been identified or designated, the obliged subjects shall gather, inter alia, the following information:

a) the name of the natural or legal person, when the beneficiary is identified or designated as a specific natural or legal person;

b) sufficient information to identify the beneficiary at the time of the payout, where the beneficiary is designated according to a set of characteristics or by category or by other criteria;

c) the verification of the identity of the beneficiary at the time of the payout, in both cases established under subparagraphs a) and b).

2. In determining whether the enhanced customer due diligence measures should be applied, the obliged subjects shall consider the beneficiary of life or other investment-related insurances[71] among the elements relevant to the risk assessment.

3. In the case where the beneficiary, be it a natural or legal person, presents a high risk, the obliged subject shall apply enhanced measures, including, inter alia, measures to identify and verify the identity of the beneficial owner at the time of payout.

Article 19 – Ongoing customer due diligence

1. Customer due diligence shall be carried out on an ongoing basis as a function of the risk of the customer, new or existing, and in the event of a change in the customer's situation and in the context of the periodic verification of the information concerning beneficial ownership[72].

1bis[73]. Ongoing customer due diligence must include, inter alia:

a) the constant monitoring of the relationship, including by scrutinizing operations or transactions undertaken throughout the course of that relationship, so as to ensure that they are consistent with the category and knowledge of the customer, his activity and risk profile, including the source of funds;

b) the updating of documents, data and information acquired for the purposes of customer due diligence, and undertaking reviews of existing records, with particular attention to categories of high-risk customers.

1ter[74]. The ongoing customer due diligence referred to in paragraph 1bis, subparagraph a) shall include, as far as possible, the background and purpose of all transactions that meet at least one of the following conditions:

a) they are complex transactions;

[68] Paragraph introduced by Article 13 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[69] Title amended by Article 12 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[70] Paragraph amended by Article 12 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[71] Paragraph amended by Article 12 (3) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[72] Paragraph amended by Article 14 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[73] Paragraph introduced by Article 14 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[74] Paragraph introduced by Article 14 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

b) they are unusually large transactions;

c) they are conducted in an unusual pattern;

d) they do not have an apparent economic or lawful purpose.

In particular, obliged entities shall increase the degree and nature of monitoring of the business relationship, in order to determine whether those transactions or activities appear suspicious.

2. If it is not possible to carry out customer due diligence in accordance with paragraph 1, it is mandatory to terminate the relationship and it is forbidden to carry out operations or transactions. In such cases, the obliged subjects shall report to the Financial Information Authority.

Article 20 – Customer due diligence of the existing customers

1. For existing customers at the time of entry into force of the obligations established in the present Title, customer due diligence shall be carried out on a timely basis and with a risk-based approach, taking into account the requirements already fulfilled and the adequacy of the documents, data and information already acquired.

2. If it is not possible to carry out customer due diligence in accordance with paragraph 1, it is mandatory to terminate the relationship. In such a case, the obliged subjects shall file a suspicious activity report to the Financial Information Authority.

Article 21 – Duty to refrain

When there is a suspicion of money laundering or of financing of terrorism and carrying out customer due diligence could alert the customer or affect the activity of the competent authorities, the obliged subjects shall carry out the service, operation or transaction and report immediately to the Financial Information Authority.

Article 22 – Risk-based approach

1. Customer due diligence shall be carried out in a manner proportionate to the risks connected to the category and to the country or geographical area of the counterpart and to the typology of relationship, product or service, operation or transaction, or channel of distribution.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the obliged subjects shall take into account, inter alia, the risk assessments established by articles 9 and 10.

3. The Financial Information Authority, taking into account the risk assessments referred to in articles 9 and 10, shall identify the cases of application of enhanced customer due diligence, and indicate the procedures and measures to be adopted, including the requirements to be fulfilled.

Article 23 – New technologies

1. The obliged subjects shall identify and assess the risks of money laundering and of the financing of terrorism connected to the development of new activities and products, including channels of distribution and the use of new technologies or those being developed, for products or services, operations or transactions, including channels of distribution either existing or new.

2. For the purposes of paragraph 1, the obliged subjects shall, inter alia:

a) assess the risks prior to launching, supplying or using products or services, operations and transactions, including channels of distribution and technologies;

b) adopt adequate measures for the management and mitigation of risks.

3. The obliged subjects shall adopt secure technologies in carrying out their activities, that are less vulnerable to abuse for the purposes of money- laundering and the financing of terrorism activities.

Article 24 – Simplified customer due diligence

1. In the case of a low risk of money-laundering or of financing of terrorism, associated with the category or country or geographical area of the counterpart, or the type of relationship, product or service, operation or transaction, including channels of distribution, the Financial Information Authority may authorise the obliged subjects to carry out simplified due diligence.

2. The Financial Information Authority, having taken into account the risk assessments referred to in articles 9 and 10, shall identify cases of application of simplified customer due diligence and indicate the procedures and measures to be adopted, including the requirements to be fulfilled.

3. In any case, simplified customer due diligence:

a) cannot be applied when there is suspicion of money-laundering or financing of terrorism and in a high-risk case;

b) does not exempt it from the fulfilment of registration and record-keeping, and suspicious activities report requirements.

Article 25 – Enhanced customer due diligence

1. In the case of a high risk of money-laundering or of financing of terrorism, associated with the category and country or geographical area of the customer, or the type of relationship, product or service, operation or transaction, including channels of distribution, the obliged subjects shall carry out enhanced customer due diligence.

2. The Financial Information Authority, also taking into account the risk assessment referred to in articles 9 and 10, shall identify the cases of application of simplified customer due diligence and indicate the procedures and measures to be taken, including the requirements to be fulfilled.

3. The Financial Information Authority shall order the application of enhanced due diligence proportionate to the risks connected to the relationships, operations are transactions, with natural or legal persons, including financial institutions of countries at high risk of money-laundering and the financing of terrorism. In such cases, the Financial Information Authority shall indicate the countermeasures adequate and proportionate to the risks.

4. The obliged subjects shall in any case carry out enhanced customer due diligence in the cases established by articles 26, 27, 28, 29, 30 and 41.

Article 26 – Counterpart not physically present

Where the counterpart is not physically present, for the purposes of identification, the obliged subjects, in addition to ordinary measures of customer due diligence, shall adopt, inter alia, the following measures:

a) to ensure the identification of the customer through additional documents, data or information;

b) to adopt additional measures to verify the identity of the counterpart, including the certification of documents of identification on the part of the competent authorities of the country of origin of the counterpart or the Apostolic Nunciature in the counterpart's country;

c) to ensure that the first payments relating to the operation will be made through an account bearing the name of the counterpart in a financial institution which ensures transparency and traceability and is under equivalent obligations to those established in the present Title. The Financial Information Authority identifies, with its own provisions, the countries which impose equivalent obligations to those established in this Title.

Article 27 – Correspondent relationships with[75] the financial institutions of other States

1. In the case of correspondent relationships with financial institutions in other countries, the obliged subjects, when entering into a new relationship[76], in addition to ordinary measures for customer due diligence, shall adopt, inter alia, the following measures[77]:

a) to gather sufficient information on the corresponding financial institution in order to fully understand fully nature of its activities and to determine, on the basis of the information available to the public, its reputation and the quality of its supervision;

b) to ascertain that the corresponding financial institution is neither a shell bank nor allows shell banks the use of its accounts;

c) to evaluate controls relating the prevention and countering of money-laundering and financing of terrorism applied by the corresponding financial institution;

d) to obtain the authorisation of the senior management prior to opening new corresponding accounts;

e) to establish in written the respective responsibilities of the obliged subject and the corresponding financial institution.

2. In the case of payable through accounts, the obliged subjects shall furthermore ensure that the corresponding financial institution:

a) has carried out customer due diligence on the customers who have direct access to those accounts;

b) has fulfilled the requirements of customer due diligence, including adequate ongoing customer due diligence and, upon request, is able to supply on a timely basis data and information obtained following the fulfilment of those requirements.

Article 28 – Politically exposed persons

1. The obliged subjects shall:

a) determine on a timely basis if the counterpart or the beneficial owner is a politically exposed person;

b) obtain the authorisation of the senior management before starting a relationship with a politically exposed person and, in the case of an existing relationship, in order to continue such a relationship;

c) establish the origin of the patrimony and funds of the customers and the effective titular identified as politically exposed persons;

[75] Title amended by Article 13 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[76] Paragraph amended by Article 15 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[77] Paragraph amended by Article 13 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

d) carry out enhanced ongoing monitoring of that relationship;

e) adopt adequate procedures and measures based upon the risk to fulfil the requirements established by this article.

2. When a politically exposed person ceases to be entrusted with a prominent public function, the obliged subjects continue to apply these measures for at least 18 months after the politically exposed person has left the office and until the moment in which they believe, after accurate analysis, that the risk has ceased.

Article 29 – Life or other investment-related insurance[78]

1. In the case of life or other investment-related insurances[79], the obliged subjects, in addition to ordinary measures of customer due diligence, shall adopt adequate measures to determine whether the beneficiary and, where necessary, the beneficial owner of the beneficiary, is a politically exposed person.

2. Such measures are to be adopted no later than the moment of payout, in whole or in part.

3. In high-risk cases, the obliged subjects shall adopt, inter alia, the following measures:

a) to inform the senior management before payout;

b) to execute enhanced controls on the entire relationship with the policy holder;

c) to evaluate the conditions for filing a suspicious activity report to the Financial Information Authority.

Article 30 – Family members and close associates of politically exposed persons

Articles 28 and 29 shall be applied also to family members and close associates of a politically exposed person.

Article 30bis – Relationships and transactions involving high-risk countries[80]

1. With respect to relationships or transactions involving the high-risk third countries identified in the list published by the Financial Information Authority pursuant to Article 9, paragraph 2, subparagraph b), point vi), obliged entities shall apply the following enhanced customer due diligence measures:

a) obtain additional information on the customer and on the beneficial owner(s);

b) obtain additional information on the intended scope and nature of the business relationship;

c) obtain information on the source of funds and source of wealth of the customer and of the beneficial owner(s);

d) obtain information on the reasons for the intended or performed transactions;

e) obtain the approval of senior management for establishing or continuing the business relationship;

f) conduct enhanced monitoring of the business relationship by increasing the number and frequency of controls applied, and selecting the patterns of transactions that need further examination.

[78] Title amended by Article 14 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[79] Paragraph amended by Article 14 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[80] Paragraph introduced by Article 16 of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.

2. The first funds transfer shall be carried out through an account in the customer's name with an institution that carries out financial activities on a professional basis and that is subject to customer due diligence standards that are not less robust than those laid down in this Law.

3. In addition to the provisions set out in the preceding paragraphs, the Financial Information Authority may, through the issuance of an Instruction, require that obliged subjects apply additional measures. Such Instruction may take into account pertinent evaluations or reports drawn up by international organizations and standard setters with competence in the field of preventing money laundering and countering terrorist financing, in relation to the risks posed by individual third countries.

CHAPTER IV
TRANSFER OF FUNDS

Article 31 – Cross-border wire transfers

1. In the case of cross-border wire transfers the originator and beneficiary payment service providers shall ensure that the transfers of funds[81] shall always be accompanied by the following data and information:

a) with reference to the originator:

i) the name and surname or, in the case of a legal person, the denomination in full;

ii) the account number or, in the absence of an account, a unique identification number that allows the traceability of the transaction;

iii) the address of residence or domicile, the official personal document number, the customer identification number or[82] date and place of birth or, in the case of a legal person, the address of the registered office;

b) with reference to the beneficiary:

i) the name and surname or, in the case of a legal person, the denomination in full;

1bis. Where all payment service providers involved in the cross-border wire transfer are part of euro area payment systems, the transfers of funds shall be accompanied at least by the payment account number of the originator and of the beneficiary or, in the absence of an account, by the unique identification number that allows the traceability of the individual transaction and its link to the originator and to the beneficiary. The Financial Information Authority establishes, by regulation, the requirements to be fulfilled[83].

2. The data and information mentioned in paragraph 1, subparagraphs a) and b), shall be accurate and verified with enhanced measures in the case of suspicion of money-laundering or financing of terrorism.

Article 32 – Batch transfers

1.In the case of cross-border batch transfers sent from the State to a third State, the batch file shall include complete and accurate data and information relating to the originator and beneficiary, indicated in Article 31, paragraph 1, subparagraphs a) and b), and that allows the traceability in the country of the beneficiary.

[81] Paragraph amended by Article 15 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[82] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 15 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[83] Paragraph introduced by Article 15 (3) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

2. In the case of batch transfers originating in a third State, the data and information relating to the originator shall be included in the batch transfer and not in the single transfers.

3. The non-routine transfers of funds shall be not batched where this increases risks of money- laundering and financing of terrorism.

Article 33 – Domestic wire transfers

1. In the case of domestic wire transfers, the originator payment service provider shall accompany the domestic wire transfer with data and information established in Article 31, paragraph 1, subparagraph a).

2. Where the data and information accompanying the domestic wire transfer can be made available to the beneficiary payment service provider and to the competent authorities by other means, the originator payment service provider shall include the account number, in case this is used for the transaction or, in the absence of an account, a unique identification code that allows the traceability of the transaction and which leads back to the originator or the beneficiary.

3. The originator payment service provider shall make the data and information available within three business days of receiving the request of the beneficiary payment service provider or the competent authorities. In any case, supervisory, law enforcement and judicial authorities can order the immediate production of such data and information.

Article 34 – Registration record-keeping and duty to refrain

1. The originator payment service provider, with reference to the data and information which accompany the wire transfers, shall comply with the obligations of registration and record-keeping found in this Title and shall keep for ten years the data and information received from the originator payment services provider or from another intermediary payment services provider.

2. The originator payment service providers shall not execute a wire transfer when it is not possible to fulfil all of the requirements established by the previous paragraphs, as well as those established by articles 31, 32, and 33.

Article 35 – Intermediary payment service providers

1. In the case of international wire transfers, the intermediary payment service providers shall ensure that the transfer is accompanied by all the data and information on the originator and beneficiary.

2. Where technical limitations prevent maintenance of data and information on the originator and on the beneficiary which accompany an international wire transfer linked to a domestic wire transfer, the intermediary payment service provider shall comply with the requirements of registration and record- keeping established in this Title, keeping for ten years the data and information received by the payment service provider of the originator or by another intermediary payment service provider.

3. Intermediary payment service providers shall adopt adequate procedures and measures that allow an immediate and direct analysis in order to identify international transfers of funds which lack required data and information on the originator or on the beneficiary.

4. The intermediary payment service providers shall adopt adequate risk-based policies procedures and measures to determine:

a) when to execute, reject or suspend a wire transfer lacking required originator or beneficiary data or information;

b) the appropriate follow-up actions.

Article 36 – Beneficiary payment service providers

1. Beneficiary payment service providers shall take adequate procedures and measures, including post- event monitoring or, where possible, real-time monitoring, to identify wire transfers which lack required data and information on the originator or on the beneficiary.

2. For cross-border wire transfers equal to or above EUR 1,000, the beneficiary payment service provider shall verify the identity of the beneficiary, if his identity has not been previously verified and register this data and information in accordance with the registration and record-keeping requirements established by the present title, keeping for ten years that data and information.

3. The beneficiary payment service providers shall adopt adequate risk-based policies, procedures and measures, to determine:

a) when to execute, reject or suspend a wire transfer lacking required originator or beneficiary data or information;

b) the appropriate follow-up action.

Article 37 – Implementation of targeted financial sanctions

The obliged subjects and payment service providers shall implement the financial measures and other preventive measures relating to subjects who threaten international peace and security.

CHAPTER V
REGISTRATION AND RECORD-KEEPING OF DOCUMENTS, DATA AND INFORMATION

Article 38 – Registration and record-keeping requirements

1. The obliged subjects shall register and keep the following documents, data and information, for a period of 10 years from the end of the relationship, from the closure of an account, from the performance of a service or from the execution of an operation or transaction:

a) with reference to customer due diligence:

i) all the documents collected, including originals or copies of identity documents;

ii) all data, including identification data and collected information;

iii) records, account books and the statements, with a detailed description of the movement;

iv) correspondence;

v) results of reviews and analyses;

b) with reference to transactions, whether domestic or international, in addition to what is established in subparagraph a):

i) the name, address, identification data and information of the counterpart, the beneficiary and the beneficial owner;

ii) the nature, reason and date of the transaction;

iii) the currency and amount of the transaction;

iv) the identification number or code of the accounts in question;

v) all documents, data and information sufficient for the reconstruction of the single transaction and, where necessary, for the collection of evidence in view of the investigative or judicial activities;

c) with reference to suspicious activity reporting:

i) copy of the report to the Financial Information Authority;

ii) all the documents, data and information connected to the report, sufficient for the analysis and understanding of the suspect activity and, where necessary, to the collection of evidence for the purpose of investigative or judicial activities;

iii) correspondence with the Financial Information Authority or other competent authorities.

2. For the purposes of fulfilling requisites for the registration and record-keeping established by paragraph 1 the obliged subjects shall:

a) register the documents, data and information established by subparagraphs a), b) and c), immediately at the moment of their acquisition or reception;

b) adopt procedures and measures for registration and record-keeping that allow:

i) to provide on a timely basis documents, data and information required by the Financial Information Authority or other competent authorities;

ii) to register accurately and update documents, data and information, in particular with reference to high risk categories of counterpart, typology of relationship, product or service, operation transaction, including channels of distribution;

iii) to ensure the integrity, security and confidentiality of the documents, data and information.

3. At the end of the period referred to in paragraph 1, the personal data of the counterpart are deleted[84].

Article 39 – Access of competent authorities

1. The Financial Information Authority and the judicial authority may request, in specific cases and with motivated decision, the registration and record- keeping established in article 38, paragraphs a), b) and c), for a period longer than 10 years.

2. The data, documents and information registered according to the previous paragraph shall remain at the disposal of the competent authorities for the activities of analysis and detailed study, as well as for investigative or judicial activities.

[84] Paragraph introduced by Article 16 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

CHAPTER VI
SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY REPORT

Article 40 – Reporting suspicious activity

1. The obliged subjects shall send a report to the Financial Information Authority:

a) when they suspect or have reasonable grounds to suspect, that funds or other assets are the proceeds of criminal activities, or are linked or related to the financing of terrorism or to be used for terrorism, terrorist acts or by terrorist organizations or those who finance terrorism;

b) in the case of activities, operations or transactions which they consider particularly likely, by their own nature, to have a link with money-laundering or the financing of terrorism or with terrorist organizations or those who finance terrorism.

2. The public authorities and the other reporting entities[85] shall send a report to the Financial Information Authority in the cases mentioned in paragraph 1.

3. Suspicious activities, operations or transactions, including attempted operations or transactions, shall be reported irrespective of their value, or any other element, including, inter alia, elements of a fiscal nature.

4. The report shall be carried out immediately, as soon as the obliged subject becomes aware of, suspects or has reasonable grounds to suspect, the elements established by paragraph 1.

5. The Financial Information Authority shall adopt guidelines relating the reporting of suspicious activity.

6. Lawyers, notaries and other legal and accounting professionals, mentioned in Article 2, paragraphs a*bis*) and b), when acting as independent legal professionals, are not required to report suspicious activities if the relevant information obtained:

a) in the course of evaluating the legal position of their clients;

b) when performing their role of defending or representing their clients or if their function relates to judicial, administrative, arbitration or mediation procedures.

Article 41 – Complex or unusual activities

1. Reporting subjects shall pay particular attention, inter alia, to complex activities, operations or transactions, or the ones of a notable or unusual value, or to unusual types of activities, operations or transactions, which have no clear or recognisable economic or legal purpose.

2. Reporting subjects shall examine the background and purpose of such operations or transactions and shall put their conclusions in writing, registering and recording those conclusions in accordance with the registration and record keeping requirements established by this Title and making them available for ten years to the competent authorities and accountants.

Article 42 – Duty to refrain

1. Reporting subjects shall refrain from establishing a relationship, or carrying out an operation or transaction, or from performing a service if they know of, suspect or have reasonable grounds to suspect the presence of elements established in Article 40, paragraph 1.

2. Where it is not possible to refrain, or where doing so would obstruct the activity of the judicial authority, the reporting subjects shall send a suspicious activity report to the Financial Information Authority, without delay, after having established a relationship, carried out an operation or transaction, or performed a service.

Article 43 – Reporting in good faith and exemption from liability

1. Reporting in good faith, including the communication of related data and information, shall not imply any kind of civil, criminal or administrative responsibility for breach of official secret, confidentiality in financial matters, or any other restriction upon communication imposed by any legislative, administrative or contractual provision for the reporting subjects, members of the management, officers, employees, advisors and assistants of any kind.

2. The exemption from responsibility under paragraph 1 covers all cases, including those in which the reporting subject does not know exactly what the underlying criminal activity is and if it has taken place or not.

Article 44 – Prohibition of disclosure

1. The reporting subjects, members of the management and senior management, officers, employees, advisors and assistants of any kind, shall not disclose to the interested subject or to third parties' knowledge of the suspicious activity, or the sending or preparation to send of a suspicious activity report, including related data and information.

2. The cases in which lawyers, notaries, other independent legal professionals and accountants, in their capacity as independent legal professionals, attempt to dissuade a client from committing an illicit activity, does not constitute a breach of the prohibition of disclosure.

3. The prohibition of disclosure established by paragraphs 1 and 2 is without prejudice to the communications and reports to the Financial Information Authority and to the investigative and judiciary authorities[86].

Article 45 – Integrity, security and confidentiality of reports

The reporting subjects shall adopt adequate policies, procedures and measures to ensure the integrity, security and confidentiality of the reports to the Financial Information Authority and of the related documents, data and information.

[86] Paragraph amended by Article 18 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

CHAPTER VII
SUPERVISION AND REGULATION FOR THE PREVENTION AND COUNTERING OF MONEY LAUNDERING AND THE FINANCING OF TERRORISM

Article 46 – Supervision and regulation for the prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism

The Financial Information Authority is the central authority for the supervision and regulation for the prevention and countering of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, and to this end shall:

a) supervise and verify the fulfilment, by the obliged subjects, of the obligations established in this Title, the related obligations established in the regulations, and the guidelines[87] adopted by the Financial Information Authority;

b) access, or request the production of, documents, data, information, registers and books, relevant for the purposes of supervision, including, inter alia, those related to accounts, operations and transactions, including the analyses carried out in order to identify unusual or suspicious activities, operations and transactions[88];

c) access, or request the production of, documents, data and information, relevant for supervisory purposes, from the legal persons with a registered office in the State or included in the registers of legal persons held by the State, including documents, data and information relating to the legal person's nature and activity, beneficial owners, beneficiaries and members of senior management[89];

d) adopt the measures necessary to avoid criminals and their associates, directly or indirectly, holding or being the beneficial owners of a significant holding or control or having a management function in the executive or supervisory organs within the supervised subjects;

e) carry out off-site and on-site inspections, including, inter alia, a check and review of policies, procedures, measures, books and registers, as well as sample tests;

f) collect and analyse information of a financial nature and other relevant information relating to the supervised entities[90].

g) publish an annual report with non-confidential data, information and statistics relating to the activities carried out in the exercise of its institutional functions.

Article 47 – Administrative sanctions

1. The Financial Information Authority, after having verified the commission of the wrongful acts, shall apply administrative sanctions in the following cases:

a) violations or systemic non-fulfilment of the requirements relating to integrity, stability and transparency of the economic, commercial and professional sectors established in Article 5 and the related obligations established by regulations of the Financial Information Authority;

b) violations or systematic non-fulfilment of the requirements relating to risk assessment, internal controls, foreign branches and subsidiaries, established in Articles 10, 11, 12 and 13[91] and the related obligations established by[92]the regulations of the Financial Information Authority;

[87] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 19 of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.
[88] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 18 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[89] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 18 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[90] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 18 (3) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[91] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 19 (1) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[92] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 20 (1) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

c) violation or systematic non-fulfilment of the requirements relating to customer due diligence, transfer of funds, registration and keeping of documents, data and information, and suspicious activity report, established in Articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44 and 45, and related requirements established by the regulations of the same Financial Information Authority;

d) violation of the obligations ensuing from the financial measures and to the preventive measures related to subjects which threaten international peace and security, established by Articles 75, 76, 77 and 78;

e) obstruction of the supervisory activity established in Article 46.

2. In the cases established by paragraph 1, the Financial Information Authority shall apply the following administrative sanctions, in accordance with Law No. X, introducing general norms in the question of administrative sanctions, of 11 July 2013:

a) a written warning, with a separate letter or within an audit report;

b) an order to comply with specific instructions, including an order to the natural or legal person to refrain from carrying out the behaviour in question and to abstain from repeating it[93], with fines in case of full or partial non-compliance;

c) an order to make regular reports on the measures adopted by the sanctioned subject, with fines in the case of total or partial non- compliance;

d) corrective measures;

e) a fine of up to EUR 5 million for natural persons, and up to 10% of the gross annual income in the preceding financial year for legal persons. The fine must be at least equal to double the amount of the profit made through the violation if this amount can be calculated, or at least equal to EUR 1 million[94].

Where the obliged subject is a parent undertaking or a subsidiary of a parent undertaking which is required to prepare consolidated financial accounts, the relevant total annual turnover shall be the total annual turnover or the corresponding type of income according to the last available consolidated accounts approved by the management body of the ultimate parent undertaking[95].

3. In the most serious cases, the Financial Information Authority shall recommend to the President of the Governorate the application of the following administrative sanctions:

a) the permanent or temporary interdiction of natural persons, from carrying out activities in the economic, commercial or professional sectors;

b) the removal or limitation of the powers of members of the management or the senior management, or persons with analogous functions;

c) the suspension or withdrawal of the authorisation to carry out professionally a financial activity;

d) the conservatorship.

4. The administrative sanctions established in paragraphs 2 and 3 shall be applied to all natural and legal persons, including members of the management and senior management of the legal persons.

5. In determining the sanction, the Financial Information Authority shall apply the principle of proportionality and considers, inter alia, the following elements:

[93] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 19 (2) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[94] Sub-Paragraph amended by Article 19 (3) of Decree No. CCCLXXII of 9 October 2020 converted into Law N. CCCXCVI of 7 January 2021.
[95] Provision introduced by Article 20 (2) of Law No. CCXLVII of 19 June 2018.

a) the seriousness and duration of the violation;

b) the level of responsibility of the natural or legal person that is liable;

c) the financial capacity of the liable natural or legal person that is liable;

d) the consistency of the profits gained or the losses avoided with the illicit activity of the natural or legal person that is liable, to the extent they can be determined;

e) the losses suffered by third parties because of the violation;

f) the level of cooperation of the liable natural of legal person responsible with the competent authority;

g) the previous violations of the natural or legal person that is liable.

6. The sanctions applied, against which no appeal has been filed, shall be published in the manner established by Law, including publication on the website of the Financial Information Authority[96], as soon as the sanctioned subject is informed of the decision. The publication shall contain, at a minimum, information on the type and nature of the violation and the identities of those responsible. The publication shall not regard decisions that apply measures of an investigative nature[97].

6bis. The information published in accordance with this Article shall remain on the website of the Financial Information Authority for a period of ten years from the date of publication. However, personal data contained therein shall be kept on the website of the Financial Information Authority only for the period necessary pursuant with the legislative provisions on the protection of personal data[98].

7. Where, following a case-by-case assessment conducted on the proportionality of the publication of such data the publication of the identity of the persons responsible as referred to in the paragraph 1, the Financial Information Authority considers to be disproportionate the publication of such data, or where such publication jeopardizes the stability of financial sector or an on-going investigation, competent authorities shall:

a) delay the publication of the decision to impose an administrative sanction or measure until the moment at which the reasons for not publishing it cease to exist;

b) publish the decision to impose an administrative sanction or measure on an anonymous basis, if such anonymous publication ensures an effective protection of the personal data concerned; in the case of a decision to publish an administrative sanction or measure on an anonymous basis, the publication of the relevant data may be postponed for a reasonable period of time if it is foreseen that within that period the reasons for anonymous publication shall cease to exist;

c) not publish the decision to impose an administrative sanction or measure at all in the event that the options set out in letters a) and b) are considered insufficient to ensure:

i) that the stability of financial sector would not be put in jeopardy; or

ii) the proportionality of the publication of the decision with regard to measures which are deemed to be of a minor nature[99].

reasonable grounds to believe that they pose a threat to international peace and security.

2. The list referred to in paragraph 1 shall contain the name and all information necessary to allow for the positive and unequivocal identification of the designated subject.

3. The list referred to in paragraph 1 and its updates are transmitted on a timely basis to the Financial Information Authority and published in the supplement of the Acta Apostolicae Sedis, as well as by displaying it at the door of the offices of the Governorate, in the Cortile San Damaso, in the State's post offices, and on the web-site of the State and the Financial Information Authority.

Article 72 – Identification of the subjects who threaten international peace and security

1. The President of the Governorate shall designate those subjects in relation to whom he has determined that there are reasonable grounds to believe that they:

a) commit, participate, organise, prepare, facilitate or finance acts for a terrorist purpose;

b) promote, constitute, organise, lead, finance, recruit or participate in an association which claims to commit acts for a terrorist purpose;

c) provide, sale or transfer arms, explosive devices or other lethal devices to who commits or participates in the commission of terrorist acts or participates in an association whose purposes is to commit acts with terrorism purposes;

d) participate, organise, prepare, facilitate, contribute, or finance an unlawful program for the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction.

2. The subjects referred to in the previous paragraph are to be included in the list even if there is no criminal conviction or pending criminal process in their regard.

3. The Promoter of Justice, the Corps of the Gendarmerie and the Financial Information Authority propose to the President of the Governorate the designation of those subjects regarding whom there are reasonable grounds to believe that they carry out one of the activities referred to in paragraph 1 and transmit to the President of the Governorate all the relevant information and documentation.

4. In drafting and updating the list, the President of the Governorate may request to the Promoter of Justice, the Corps of the Gendarmerie and the Financial Information Authority any other information or documentation that may contribute to his own assessment.

5. In drafting and updating the list, the President of the Governorate shall examine the designations made by the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations, of the European Union and of other States. Such designations even on their own, are deemed to constitute sufficient grounds for designation.

Article 73 – Removal of subjects from the list

1. The President of the Governorate, having heard the Secretariat of State, delists those subjects regarding whom there are no longer reasonable grounds to believe that they pose a threat to international peace and security.

2. The delisting may also take place by proposal of the Promoter of Justice, the Corps of the Gendarmerie or the Financial Information Authority.

3. The President of the Governorate examines also the decisions taken by the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations, of the European Union and of other States.

4. Those who believed they have been designated without sufficient grounds or by error may apply for delisting directly to the President of the Governorate. The President of the Governorate shall reply within 15 days from the receipt of the request.

5. In the case of a negative reply or of no reply within the established period, the designation may be contested before the Tribunal.

6. The trial proceeds in accordance with articles 776 and following of the Code of Civil Procedure, insofar as applicable, with the necessary intervention of the Promoter of Justice and in the dispute between the plaintiff and the Governorate.

7. If the Tribunal finds that the grounds for the designation of the subject were not sufficient, it orders its delisting.

Article 74 – International cooperation

The Secretariat of State:

a) receives from the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations, of the European Union and of other States, proposals to designate subjects and transmits them to the President of the Governorate;

b) having heard the President of the Governorate, shall formulate to the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations and of the European Union as well as other States proposals to designate subjects regarding whom there are reasonable grounds to believe that they pose a threat to international peace and security, communicating the information necessary to that end;

c) having heard the President of the Governorate, shall formulate to the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations and the European Union as well as other States proposals for the delisting of subjects from their respective lists, also on the basis of the outcome of recourses presented in accordance with article 73;

d) shall gather from the competent organs of the Security Council of the United Nations and of the European Union as well as from other States any other information which may be useful to the carrying out of the activities mentioned in articles 71, 72 and 73 and forwards it to the President of the Governorate;

e) concludes agreement or memoranda of understanding with the authorities of other States and competent international organisations in order to contribute to the necessary international cooperation.

Article 75 – Financial Measures

1. It is forbidden to provide, directly or indirectly, subjects included in the list with funds or other assets, or to grant them financial services or services connected to them.

2. The Financial Information Authority, by its own resolution, shall order immediately and without previous notice, the freezing of:

a) the funds and other assets owned, held, controlled or detained, exclusively or jointly, directly or indirectly, by the subjects included in the list;

b) the benefits and profits generated by the funds and other assets referred to in paragraph a);

4. The provision ordering the freezing referred to in paragraph 2 shall be communicated without delay to the entities carrying out professionally a financial activity.

5. The entities carrying out professionally a financial activity must verify without delay the presence within their own institution of funds or other assets owned or held, exclusively or jointly, directly or indirectly, by the subjects included in the list.

6. The entities carrying out professionally a financial activity, shall communicate to the Financial Information Authority, within 30 days from the date of the adoption of the resolution referred to in paragraph 1:

a) the measures adopted for the implementation of the freezing, indicating the subjects involved and the amount and nature of the funds and other assets;

b) any information relating to the relationship, services or transactions, as well as any other available data, that may be related to the subjects included in the list;

c) information relating to any attempted financial transaction which may involve the funds or other assets frozen according to paragraph 2.

7. In the case of the delisting of a subject, the Financial Information Authority, with its own provision, shall revoke immediately the freezing referred to in paragraph 2, communicating it, without delay, to the entities carrying out professionally a financial activity.

Article 76 – Preventive measures

1. When there are reasonable grounds to believe that a subject poses a threat to international peace and security and that there is also the risk that the funds or other assets which should be frozen may be hidden or used for criminal purposes, the President of the Governorate shall inform the Promoter of Justice and the Financial Information Authority with a view to the adoption of preventive measures.

2. In the case referred to in the previous paragraph, the Financial Information Authority shall order immediately the freezing of the funds or other assets, informing the entities carrying out professionally a financial activity.

3. The resolution ordering the freezing referred to in paragraph 2 become ineffective if, after fifteen days from its adoption, the subject has not been included in the list.

Article 77 – Effects of the freezing of assets

1. The frozen funds or other assets cannot be the subject to transfer, modification, use, management or access in such a way as to modify their volume, import, place, property, possess, nature, destination or any other change which would permit the use, including the management of stock portfolios.

2. The frozen assets cannot be subject to transfer, modification, use or management, including sale, rent or constitution of any other real right or guarantee, with a view to obtaining in any way goods and services.

3. The contracts and the acts of disposal having as their object the funds or other assets pursuant to Articles 75 and 76 are void when the third parties knew or should have known that the funds or other assets object of the contract or act of disposal were subject to the measures referred to in 75 or 76.

4. The resolution ordering the freezing of assets referred to in Articles 75 and 76 do not prejudice the effects of any order for the seizure or confiscation adopted in the context of a judicial or administrative procedure, having the same funds or other assets as their object.

5. The freezing of funds or other assets, as well as the omission or refusal to provide financial services, believed in good faith to be in conformity to this Title, do not give raise any kind of liability for the natural or legal person, including its legal representatives, administrators, directors, employees, advisers or collaborators of any kind, who puts them into effect, except in cases of serious fault.

6. The Tribunal is competent over any legal claim against the freezing order referred to in Articles 75 and 76.

7. The trial proceeds in accordance with Articles 776 and following of the Code of Civil Procedure, insofar as applicable, with the necessary intervention of the Promoter of Justice in the dispute between the plaintiff and the Financial Information Authority.

Article 78 – Safeguarding, administration and management of frozen assets

1. The President of the Governorate shall provide directly, or through the appointment of a custodian or an administrator, to the custody or administration of frozen funds or other assets.

2. Where, in the course of a judicial or administrative trials, the seizure or confiscation of the financial goods or assets referred to in the previous paragraph is ordered, the responsible for their administration is, in the case of seizure, the authority which ordered the seizure, or, in the case of confiscation, the President of the Governorate.
